Rishit Sharma is a dynamic top-order batter currently based in Lancashire, England.

Born and raised in Dubai, Rishit developed his game through the UAE pathway system, representing the UAE Under-16s and competing in high-level regional tournaments, including the Asia Cup at age-group level. His early exposure to competitive cricket in the Middle East helped shape his positive stroke-play and calm temperament under pressure.

Known for his attacking intent, consistency at the top of the order, and ability to dominate limited-overs bowling attacks, Rishit now hones his craft with Blackpool Cricket Club in the Northern Premier League.

Since relocating to the UK, he has quickly established himself in league cricket. During the 2024 season, Rishit enjoyed a standout campaign in the Palace Shield (Northern Pyramid), finishing as the competition's leading run-scorer. His season was highlighted by a stunning 48-ball T20 century, showcasing his ability to blend explosive power-hitting with intelligent shot selection.

In recognition of his performances, Rishit was awarded Young Player Batting Award at Blackpool Cricket Club. He also earned selection for the Northern League Representative XI, continuing to impress against strong regional opposition.

With his studies set to conclude in summer 2026, Rishit is now targeting a season down under to further develop his game in different conditions. An aggressive and reliable top-order batter, he would be a valuable addition to any side.
