Roahn Mohindru (20) is a talented top-order batter from Port Talbot, Wales.

A product of the Glamorgan County Cricket Club pathway, Roahn enjoyed an outstanding junior career, progressing through the county age-group system while captaining several representative sides. His performances earned selection for the prestigious Under 15 Bunbury Festival.

During his time with Glamorgan, Roahn received a number of individual accolades, including being named the county's Under 16 Batter of the Year. He also scored four centuries in county colours, with a highest score of 134, highlighting both his consistency and ability to produce match-winning innings.

At senior club level, Roahn represents Port Talbot Cricket Club in the Second Division of the Welsh Premier League, where he has continued his excellent development. During the current season, he has accumulated almost 600 First XI runs, including a superb unbeaten 155, establishing himself as one of the competition's leading young batters.

Roahn is recognised for his ability to construct long, match-defining innings. A technically accomplished top-order batter, he is equally comfortable against high-quality pace and spin, combining patience, sound decision-making, and excellent shot selection with the ability to score consistently throughout an innings. His game is built around occupying the crease, accumulating runs, and providing stability at the top of the order.

Now eager to take the next step in his cricketing journey, Roahn is seeking his first overseas opportunity in the Southern Hemisphere, where he is keen to experience different conditions, continue his development, and immerse himself in the culture of his chosen club.

A technically gifted young batter, Roahn would be an excellent addition to any club looking to strengthen its top order for the 2026/27 season.
