Robbie Millar is a hugely talented bowling all-rounder from Derry, Northern Ireland.

A former Ireland Under-19 cricket team international, Robbie played a key role in Ireland's run to the Under-19 World Cup Plate Final in 2022, showcasing his ability on the international stage from a young age.

Since then, Millar has progressed into the North West Warriors setup, representing the side in three List A matches and twelve T20 appearances, continuing his development within the professional structure of Irish cricket.

At club level, Robbie represents Eglinton Cricket Club, one of the powerhouses of the North West Premier League, where he plays an important role with both bat and ball.

A genuine wicket-taking spinner, Robbie also boasts valuable overseas experience. During the 2022/23 season, the then 18-year-old spent time in Victoria with Orbost Cricket Club, where he enjoyed a highly successful campaign, claiming 39 wickets at an average of 15.

Now a more mature and well-rounded cricketer, Robbie is eager to return to the Southern Hemisphere to continue challenging himself, further his development, and push for greater opportunities within the Cricket Ireland professional setup.

Beyond playing, Robbie is also an ECB Core Coach (Level Two) and is keen to immerse himself within a club's coaching structure, contributing strongly to both player development and overall club culture.

A highly talented all-round cricketer with professional experience and proven overseas success, Robbie would be an outstanding addition for any club seeking a genuine wicket-taking spinner for the 2026/27 season.
