Romaine Morris is a highly talented Jamaican left handed wicketkeeper batter.

Born on 12 October 1995 in Jamaica, Morris has represented his country in regional domestic cricket, featuring in first-class, List A and T20 competitions.

Morris began his first class career with Jamaica during the 2017/18 season and has continued to feature in the regional game. His domestic experience includes representing Jamaica, Combined Campuses and Colleges, and the Jamaica Kingsmen in the CPL, as well as playing T20 cricket for the Surrey Royals.

As a wicketkeeper, Morris provides an additional dimension to his team's fielding unit, combining his glovework with his batting responsibilities. His experience across different formats has given him opportunities to develop his game and he is keen to keep progressing with a season in the UK in 2027.

An elegant left handed stroke maker, Romaine represents a quality option for any club seeking a wicket keeper/batter for the coming season. He has all the tools to be an excellent UK club cricket professional.
