Ronak is a talented right-handed top-order batter and handy off-spinner who has already built an impressive cricketing résumé through his leadership and performances on the international youth stage. A composed presence at the crease and a natural leader, he has represented Zimbabwe U19 on multiple tours, including captaining the side during a high-profile tour to India.

His cricketing journey began early, progressing through the ranks of Zimbabwe Schools Cricket from U14 to U17, before being selected for five U19 international tours—a standout achievement. Most notably, he was part of Zimbabwe’s squad for the 2024 ICC U19 Cricket World Cup in South Africa, competing against the best young talents from around the globe.

A regular performer on international tours, Ronak toured India three times with Zimbabwe U19, captaining the side on the second tour, where he showcased his batting class with two centuries and several fifties—a testament to his ability to thrive in challenging conditions.

Domestically, Ronak led from the front, captaining Hellenic First Team to an undefeated season and a runner-up finish in the Saint George’s T20 tournament, further displaying his leadership credentials and match-winning ability.

A driven and passionate cricketer, Ronak is now focused on progressing into senior international cricket and making his mark in global leagues and franchise competitions. With strong technical foundations, leadership experience, and a hunger to succeed at the highest level, he is a name to watch for the future.
