Ronak is a right-handed top-order batsman and a handy off-spin bowler who has represented Zimbabwe U19 on multiple tours, including captaining the side during a tour to India. He has also featured for the Zimbabwe Emerging side in matches against South Africa.

His journey in Zimbabwean cricket began at a young age, representing Zimbabwe Schools cricket from U14 through to U17. He was selected for Zimbabwe U19 on five tours, most notably competing in the 2024 ICC U19 Cricket World Cup in South Africa.

Ronak toured India three times with the Zimbabwe U19 team, captaining the side on the second tour. During these tours, he showcased his batting prowess, scoring two centuries along with several fifties.

At the domestic level, he captained Hellenic First Team, leading them to an undefeated season and a runner-up finish in the Saint George’s T20 tournament.

A dedicated and passionate cricketer, Ronak is committed to continuously improving his skills with the goal of playing international cricket and competing in various leagues and franchises worldwide, testing himself against the best players in the game.
