Ronak is a talented right-handed top-order batter and a handy off-spinner who has already built an impressive cricketing résumé through his leadership and performances on the international youth stage. A composed presence at the crease and a natural leader, he has represented Zimbabwe U19 on multiple tours, including captaining the side during a high-profile tour to India.

His cricketing journey began early, progressing through the ranks of Zimbabwe Schools Cricket from U14 to U17 before earning selection for five U19 international tours—an outstanding achievement that highlights both his consistency and potential. He was most notably part of Zimbabwe's squad for the 2024 ICC U19 Cricket World Cup in South Africa, where he competed against some of the best young talents in the world.

A regular performer on international tours, Ronak toured India three times with Zimbabwe U19 and captained the side on his second visit. In challenging subcontinental conditions, he demonstrated his class and temperament with two centuries and several half-centuries, underlining his ability to perform under pressure and lead from the front.

During the summer of 2025, Ronak stepped into a leadership role for the Zimbabwean Emerging Players (U25s) on their July/August tour of England. He was the team's most consistent batter, amassing 325 runs at an average of 36.11, including an outstanding 132 against EAPL side Downham Stow. He also contributed effectively with the ball, claiming 8 wickets, with best figures of 3-28 against the Club Cricket Conference.

In recent months, Ronak has transitioned into senior domestic cricket, gaining valuable experience across formats. In first-class cricket, he has featured in five matches, scoring 185 runs with a highest score of 76, while also contributing with the ball as an off-spinner. In the List A format, he has shown greater fluency, accumulating 248 runs at an average of 27.55, including two half-centuries, alongside four wickets that reinforce his all-round capabilities. He has also begun to find his footing in T20 cricket, adding early exposure in the shortest format to his growing skill set.

Domestically, Ronak has continued to demonstrate his leadership qualities, captaining Hellenic First Team to an undefeated season and guiding them to a runner-up finish in the Saint George's T20 tournament. His ability to lead from the front and influence games both with the bat and ball has made him a key figure in his side's success.

A driven and ambitious cricketer, Ronak is now focused on establishing himself at senior international level and making his mark in global franchise competitions. With strong technical foundations, proven leadership experience, and a clear hunger to succeed, he stands out as one of Zimbabwe's most promising young talents and a player to watch for the future.
