Rowan Snell, a bowling all-rounder from Worcestershire, England.

A passionate and committed cricketer, Rowan hones his craft at his local club, Harvington Cricket Club, competing in the Worcestershire County League, where he is a key contributor with both bat and ball.

Alongside his club commitments, Snell studies at Cardiff University and is an integral part of the university's cricket programme, captaining their BUCS XI and gaining valuable leadership experience in a competitive environment.

During the 2025 season across all teams and competitions, Rowan enjoyed an outstanding year. He claimed 45 wickets at an impressive average of 17.6, finishing as the division's leading wicket-taker. With the bat, he added further value, scoring 852 runs at an average of 32, including a highest score of 146.

A keen and enthusiastic coach, Rowan is eager to become an integral part of a club's coaching structure and play a meaningful role in junior development. With previous experience as a groundsman and curator, he can also provide valuable support off the field, making him a well-rounded asset to any club.
