Ryan Coetzee is a talented young batter from Auckland, New Zealand. Available for Holland & The Republic Of Ireland

A former member of the Auckland U17's Academy side, the 18-year-old is now pushing for selection in the U19's side a year below his allotted age-group.

Currently playing his Club Cricket for Hibiscus Coast Premier Grade side, Ryan plays in the Auckland Premier Competition and has enjoyed a bright start to his 1st XI career.

An organised right-hander, Coetzee is an exciting young talent with a lot of potential. Bringing high energy and genuine enthusiasm to improving all facets of his game, the Kiwi currently trains under former Zimbabwe international Paul Strang.

Now seeking a stint in the Northern Hemisphere for the upcoming 2025 EU season, the young 'Pathway' batter is no doubt an exciting prospect and one to watch for the future.
