Ryan Roberts (18), an ambitious young batting all-rounder from Stoke on Trent, England.

Having recently joined Burslem Cricket Club ahead of the 2025 season, Roberts previously played for Whitmore Cricket Club, where he enjoyed a strong 2024 season, scoring 429 runs at an average of 25.24 for the club's First XI.

A product of the Northamptonshire County Cricket Club pathway, Ryan represented the county at junior age-group levels before earning selection to the Northamptonshire Academy. In his final year with the county, he was appointed captain of the Academy/EPP, highlighting his leadership and cricketing intelligence.

His talent and performances saw him selected for the England Indoor Cricket Team, where he played a key role as they finished runners-up. Notably, Ryan was awarded Player of the Match against South Africa, further underlining his ability on the big stage.

Now eager for the next chapter in his cricketing journey, Roberts is looking to spend a season Down Under, aiming to develop his skills, adaptability, and overall game in a different environment.

A great pick-up for any club looking for a driven, young cricketer ready to immerse himself in club life and contribute both on and off the field.
