Ryan Wood is an impressive seam bowling all-rounder from Lancashire, England.

Wood is a genuine front-line left-arm quick bowler who bowls with decent pace and has the ability to move the ball both ways, he is also a handy middle-to-lower order right-hand batter.

The Englishman plays for his home town club Norley Hall Cricket Club in the strong Liverpool and District Cricket Competition and has been an integral part of the 1st team side for a number of years.

Since breaking into the 1st team 10 years ago Wood has taken over 300 1st team wickets at an average of under 14, and most seasons in recent years picking up around 40 wickets a season. Although Wood is seen as more of a bowler, he is certainly no mug with the bat and scored over 1500 1st team runs averaging late teens, with 3 half-centuries.

Wood has excelled in English club cricket and is now looking to do likewise abroad having signed with Lakes Entrance for their 2022/23 Bairnsdale Cricket Association campaign.
