Overview

Saad Khan is an outstanding batting all-rounder and one of Pakistan's most promising domestic talents pushing for senior national selection. With years of consistent performances at both domestic and international youth levels, it seems only a matter of time before Khan makes his mark on the international stage.

Domestic Record

A former schoolboy prodigy, Saad represented Pakistan Under-19s from 2016 to 2018, earning 16 caps and featuring at the 2018 Under-19 World Cup. He made his first-class debut for Habib Bank Limited in September 2018 while still a teenager, but it was his move to Sindh that truly ignited his career. Over four full Quaid-e-Azam Trophy seasons since, he has compiled an impressive record: 769 runs at 64.08 in 2021/22, 610 at 40.66 in 2022/23, 612 at 47.07 in 2023/24, and 425 at 28.33 in 2024/25. He has continued that form into 2025/26 with Bahawalpur, striking 215 against Islamabad in the first round and following up with 61 and 103* in a later match against Karachi Region Blues. In addition to his red-ball success, Saad is a capable left-arm spinner, offering genuine all-round value. Across his first-class career he has scored 3,583 runs at 45.93 from 51 matches, with 9 centuries, 20 half-centuries and a highest score of 215, to go with 24 wickets with the ball.

UK League Record

Saad has enjoyed three consecutive UK stints, proving his value as a reliable overseas pro. In 2022 he played for Furness CC in Cumbria, scoring 425 runs at 42.50 and taking 8 wickets at 20.38 — in a season limited to just 13 matches by visa delays related to the Ukraine conflict. In 2023 he moved to Beckenham CC in the Kent League, producing a standout 673 runs at 44.87 and 32 wickets at 18.69. In 2024 he impressed again for Old Rutlishians CC in the Surrey Championship, with 545 runs at 45.42 and 30 wickets at 13.30. Most recently, in 2026, he played for Slough CC in the Home Counties League, scoring 457 runs at 50.78 and taking 12 wickets at 34.75.

Outlook

Saad is a proven performer, home and abroad, and is now seeking a UK return in 2027.
