Saad Khan is a dynamic batting all-rounder and one of Pakistan's most promising talents pushing for senior national selection. With years of consistent performances at both domestic and international youth levels, it seems only a matter of time before Khan makes his mark on the international stage.

A former schoolboy prodigy, Saad represented Pakistan U19 from 2016 to 2018, earning 16 caps over three years and showcasing his class against top youth opposition globally.

He made his first-class debut for Habib Bank in 2018 while still in his teens, but it was his transfer to Sindh that truly ignited his career. Over the last four Quaid-e-Azam Trophy seasons, he has compiled an impressive record:

2021/22: 769 runs @ 64.08
2022/23: 610 runs @ 40.66
2023/24: 612 runs @ 47.07
2024/25: 425 runs @ 28.33

In addition to his red-ball success, Saad is a capable left-arm spinner, offering genuine all-round value in all formats.

Overseas Experience - UK Success

Saad has enjoyed three consecutive UK stints, proving his value as a reliable overseas pro:

2022 – Furness CC (Cumbria): 425 runs @ 42.50 & 8 wickets @ 20.38

(Despite playing only 13 matches due to visa delays related to the Ukraine conflict)

2023 – Beckenham CC (Kent League): 673 runs @ 44.87 & 32 wickets @ 18.69

2024 – Old Rutlishians CC (Surrey Championship): 545 runs @ 45.42 & 30 wickets @ 13.30

2026 Availability

Following three standout UK seasons, Saad Khan is now available for a new overseas opportunity for the 2026 summer, bringing a rare mix of batting reliability and wicket-taking spin, along with professionalism and experience in multiple UK leagues.

A natural match-winner and proven performer, Saad would be a prized signing for any club seeking a high-impact all-rounder.
