Sachintha Peiris is a highly experienced and skilful off-spin bowling all-rounder, currently representing Kurunegala Youth Cricket Club in Sri Lanka's domestic setup. Sharing the field with fellow CricX talents such as Dinushka Malan, Sanoj Darshika, Damith Perera, and Samit Gohil, Peiris continues to be a reliable performer and a key figure in his side.

Since making his first-class debut for Nondescripts CC in 2016, Peiris has amassed 100+ appearances across formats, playing for respected domestic clubs including Burgher Recreation, Colts, Saracens, and NCC. Over the years, he has developed a reputation as one of the most economical and consistent off-spinners in the domestic circuit.

With well over 150 wickets to his name, Peiris maintains impressive averages across all formats—circa 30 in First-Class, 29 in List A, and an outstanding 18 in T20s. His control, flight, and ability to tie down batters make him an asset, especially in the shorter formats.

While primarily a frontline bowler, Peiris is also a capable lower-middle order batter, averaging 13 in first-class cricket and regularly contributing with crucial runs when needed.

His quality has long been recognised at national level. A former member of the Sri Lanka U13-U19 spin squads, Sri Lanka U19s, and the National Spin Squad, Peiris was also selected for the prestigious Sri Lanka Emerging Players squad in the 2018/19 season.

Now in the prime of his career, Sachintha Peiris is eager to embrace a new challenge in UK club cricket for the 2026 season. With his experience, versatility, and temperament, he promises to be a high-impact overseas professional—bringing value both on and off the field.
