Sadique Henry is a talented batter playing for the Combined Campuses and Colleges in West Indian domestic cricket.

The front-line batter returned to the domestic fold last summer (2023/24) having previously made his List A debut during the 2019/20 season in the Regional Super50 tournament. During that summer, Henry scored 153 runs at 21.85 with a highest score of 54 in his 7 one-day outings.

Roll on February 2024 and Henry would make his first-class debut in the CWI 4-Day Championship against the Windward Islands. In the next two matches, against the Leeward Islands, and Windies Academy, he would score back-to-back fifties (73, and 63) to cement his spot in the CCAC top-order.

Now Henry is a CCAC regular, he is eager to dominate the 2024/25 domestic season before embarking on a UK return following his maiden stint in 2023. Playing in the Surrey Championship for Beddington, the Jamaican, by his own omission, under-performed scoring 426 runs at 22.42, so he’s eager to return to make amends in 2025.
