He represented North West Emerging Warriors on a few occasions as well as captaining them against the MCC. The all-rounder plays his club cricket for Bonds Glen Cricket Club, and in the 2025 club summer he scored 527 runs and took 13 wickets in the North West Championship.

Now seeking his next challenge and to continue his development, Sam is seeking a winter in the Souther Hemisphere and will no doubt a great addition to any Club wanting to bring in a young, International cricketer to their squad.
