Sam Youds is an impressive all-rounder from the UK, who currently resides in Melbourne.

Youds is a fluent right handed middle order batter and skiddy right arm medium quick seamer, who has recently completed his 2nd season in Melbourne playing for Royal Park Brunswick Cricket Club in the strong VTCA.

The Englishman had an injury hit season last season (Hamstring injury), so missed a handful of games and couldn't bowl for the majority of the season. He still averaged 26 with the bat, Sam was appointed Head Coach of Royal Park Brunswick for the 2023/24 season, as well as 1st XI Vice Captain. Sam ended up captaining 4 fixtures in that season. The 2022/23 season he picked up 15 wickets at 20 and chipped in with nearly 200 runs.

Youds is now settled in Melbourne, where he lives with his partner in South Yarra, and is on a 482 Temporary Resident Visa so can play as a local in most comps. The all-rounder is now seeking a new club in the Eastern Suburbs for the 2024/25 season.

Sam has recently signed with Port Melbourne Cricket Club for the 2024/25 Victorian Sub-District Cricket Association.
