Samarpit Joshi is a talented wicket-keeper batter playing for powerhouse Indian State side, Rajasthan, across the three formats of Indian domestic cricket.

Since his Vijay Hazare Trophy (List A) debut in March 2021, opportunities have been limited to 27 matches to date (9 FC, 14 List A, 4 T20), as he continues to vie with Kunal Rathore for Rajasthan's keeping slot.

In a side that features the likes of Indian internationals, Deepak Hooda, and the Chahar cousins, Deepak and Rahul, in addition to CricX star Yash Kothari, Joshi has impressed in his 21 outings to date.

After a solitary Ranji Trophy (FC) match during the 2021/22 season, he excelled during the 2022/23 campaign striking his maiden hundred (123) against Chhattisgarh amongst 215 runs at 43. Surprisingly, he would only feature in 3 Ranji matches last season.

In white ball cricket, opportunities have been equally limited, despite his productive 2021/22 Vijay Hazare campaign averaging 53.33.

Joshi, who when not donning the gloves is a capable off-spin bowler, remains part of the Rajasthan squad and hopes to secure more game time throughout the 2024/25 season.

Thereafter, the talented Indian youngster is seeking a return abroad in 2025 following a strong maiden UK stint last summer for Elsecar in the Yorkshire Cricket Southern Premier League (850 runs at 44.74) where he also completed his ECB Core Coach course.

This summer, Joshi will look to impress again having signed with Cornwood for their 2025 Devon League campaign.
