Sandun Mendis is a talented 24-year-old Sri Lankan all-rounder currently representing Nugegoda Sports Welfare Club.

Having previously played for Colombo Cricket Club, he has developed into a consistent performer and dependable contributor across formats in Sri Lanka's top domestic competitions.

A skillful right-arm off spinner, Mendis has been a regular strike option in both red and white-ball cricket, featuring among the top 10 wicket-takers in the 2023 Major League T20 and 2022 Major League one day tournaments. With the bat, he is a genuine middle-order player, capable of stabilising innings or lifting the tempo when required—particularly effective in the shorter formats.

A former Sri Lanka U19 representative (2018–2020) and the younger brother of Sri Lanka cricketer Kamindu Mendis, Sandun combines pedigree, professionalism, and a strong work ethic. He is keen to get involved with junior coaching and club life as a whole.

Set to embark on his first UK season in 2026, he aims to make a strong impression and is keen to showcase his skills overseas and make a significant contribution to his club.

*NB - Sandun requires x3 further FC games to qualify for the ISP Visa*
