Sasanka Perera is a talented batting all-rounder making steady strides in Sri Lankan domestic cricket. Currently representing Badureliya Sports Club (2023/24-), he previously spent four seasons with Panadura Sports Club (2019/20–2022/23), where he built his reputation as a dependable performer in white-ball formats.

A genuine all-rounder, Perera bats in the top-middle order and offers useful off-spin with the ball. His consistency and impact, particularly in List A cricket, have seen him feature in 4 first-class, 20 List A, and 6 T20 matches to date. He has been especially prominent at Emerging (U23) level, where he excelled as both a performer and a leader. In the 2022 Emerging Three-Day Tournament, he finished as Panadura's leading wicket-taker and ranked seventh overall, claiming 29 wickets at 20.96—a testament to his growing stature as a bowler.

Leadership has also been a significant part of Perera's journey. He captained Holy Cross College, Kalutara, during the 2018/19 season and went on to lead Panadura's U23 side during the 2022 Emerging Players tournament, showcasing his ability to guide and inspire his peers.

Now part of the setup at Badureliya SC, Perera is looking to cement his place across all three formats and continue his upward trajectory in Sri Lankan domestic cricket.

Note: Sasanka requires 1 more FC match to become eligible for the UK in 2026.
