Sasanka Perera is a talented batting all-rounder playing for Badureliya Sports Club (2023/24-) following several seasons with Panadura Sports Club (2019/20-2022/23).

A genuine all-rounder, Perera bats in the top-middle order and bowls off-spin. He has been a handy performer in white ball cricket since COVID and is now looking to become a regular feature in first-class this summer.

Perera has been a stand-out performer at the Emerging (U23) player level in Sri Lankan cricket in recent years, culminating with List A and T20 inclusion. He topped Panadura's U23 wicket charts in both the 2020 and 2022 editions, bagging 29 poles at 20.96 during the latter to finish 7th on the Emerging Three Day Tournament table overall.

Over the years, Perera has also been a leader-of-men, skippering his College (Holy Cross, Kalutara) during the 2018/19 season. He was then the leader of Panadura's U23s during the most recent Emerging Players tournament (2022).

The all-rounder is eager to get his 5 FC matches under his belt this summer, and assuming he does this, will look to play in the UK in 2025.
