Saurabh Nawale is an exciting wicket-keeper batter, who also bowls useful off-spin, playing for the star-studded Maharashtra State team in India.

The gloveman, who plays alongside the likes of international players including Ruturaj Gaikwad, Kedar Jadhav, Rahul Tripathi, not to mention CricX stars such as Ashay Palkar, Ankit Bawne, and Manoj Ingale, has impressed since his first-class debut in December 2022.

Nawale was plucked out of Premier club cricket, having dominated for Chatrapati Sambhaji Kings in the Maharashtra Premier League. In only his second first-class match, Nawale struck his maiden half-century (72) against serial Ranji Trophy winners Saurashtra. He would back up with another 70 against Andhra in his next, before impressive knocks against Indian powerhouse Mumbai (58 & 47) in his most recent, and 7th first-class match.

The talented Nawale has now scored 339 runs at 33.90 with 3 half-centuries early into his professional career. He is looking ahead to a big 2024 Ranji Trophy campaign before embarking on a UK opportunity next summer.

As indicated, Nawale is a more than handy operator with ball-in-hand, and he's happy to play league cricket as a batter who bowls, or wicket-keeper. A high quality, and versatile talent for any club side in 2024.
