Sebastian (Seb) Bainbridge (18), an explosive top order batter from Coventry, England.

Seb is currently in his final year at the prestigious Princethorpe College, where he has captained the First XI for the past two seasons. A dynamic and match-winning batter, he has played a pivotal role at the top of the order, producing game-changing knocks.

At club level, Seb hones his craft with Leamington Cricket Club in the Birmingham & District Cricket League. Due to school commitments, his availability has been limited, resulting in appearances across multiple teams when available. However, with a full season ahead in 2025, he is determined to cement his place as a key player in the Club's First XI.

With his schooling set to finish this summer, Seb believes the next step in his development is an overseas season in either Australia or New Zealand.

A keen and enthusiastic coach, he is eager to immerse himself in club life, not only as a player but also as a mentor, playing a crucial role in his new club's junior programme.

A fantastic addition to any club looking for a driven and talented cricketer ready to contribute both on and off the field.
