Senash Fernando is an exciting young all-rounder making his mark in Sri Lankan domestic cricket. Now with Kandy Customs Sports Club for the 2024/25 season, he previously broke into the professional game with the Sri Lankan Air Force, where he debuted in both List A and first-class cricket in 2022 before adding his T20 debut in 2023.

A middle-order batter and slow left-arm spinner, Fernando has already featured in 14 first-class, 9 List A, and 5 T20 matches. He first turned heads in age-group cricket, coming close to selection for Sri Lanka U19's 2022 tour of England after a standout Sri Lanka Cricket Emerging Three Day Tournament, highlighted by a match-winning nine-wicket haul against Sebastianites U23s.

In his first season with Kandy Customs, he enjoyed a productive first-class campaign, scoring 341 runs at 24.35. That followed a maiden UK stint in 2023 with Droylsden in the Greater Manchester Cricket League, where his returns—169 runs at 15.36 and 22 wickets at 16.32—showed flashes of his potential.

Ambitious and versatile, Fernando is keen to return to the UK in 2026. With prior league experience, a sought-after skill set, and accommodation in Manchester already secured, he's open to opportunities across the country.
