Shaik Rasheed is a rising star in Indian cricket, currently featuring for the Chennai Super Kings in the 2025 IPL. An aggressive top-order batter and handy leg-spin bowler, Rasheed first captured national attention during the 2022 ICC Under-19 World Cup, where he top-scored with a composed 50 in India's successful run chase against England in the final.

Following his U19 heroics, Rasheed quickly transitioned into senior cricket, debuting across all formats for Andhra Pradesh in the 2022 domestic season. After two solid years, he enjoyed a breakout 2024/25 campaign, amassing 627 runs at 52.25 in the Ranji Trophy, including two standout centuries—one of which was a brilliant double ton (203).

His domestic success earned him a well-deserved IPL call-up, and he has since appeared in five matches for CSK, showcasing his explosive potential at the top level.

Now looking to build on his momentum, Rasheed is seeking an opportunity to play in the UK during the upcoming summer. His goals are clear: to continue evolving as a cricketer, gain valuable overseas experience, and push for full international honours.
