Shaqkere Parris is a stylish and powerful opening batter from Bridgetown, Barbados.

Most recently, Parris was selected for the West Indies U19 side for the U19 Cricket World Cup. Unfortunately, the team didn't progress as far as they would like to have done, however, it's proven great experience for the young opening bat from Barbados.

Shaqkere's best innings came against Papua New Guinea U19's in the Plate Quarter Final where he contributed 64 from 89 balls, the team went on to win convincingly after setting a 317.

Parris, who has topped his club's (Ipswich Town in the Elite Division) run charts over the past two seasons, is now set to embark on a UK stint having signed with Hampton Wick Royal for their 2022 Surrey Championship campaign.
