Career Highlights

First-Class Career:

1,353 runs @ 39.79 – A consistent and reliable performer with the bat, Sharath has carved out a reputation for scoring crucial runs in pressure situations.

Over 100 dismissals behind the stumps, reflecting his elite wicket-keeping standards – quick reflexes, clean glove work, and outstanding footwork.

T20 Success:

Key member of the championship-winning Maharaja Trophy (KSCA T20) team, demonstrating his versatility across formats.

Domestic Campaigns:

Featured in 3 Ranji Trophy semi-finals and a Vijay Hazare Trophy semi-final, contributing significantly with bat and gloves in India’s toughest competitions.

Leadership & Development

Captaincy Roles: Former captain of Karnataka U16, U19, and U23, leading from the front with maturity and tactical clarity.

NCA Graduate: Trained at the prestigious National Cricket Academy (U16 and U19 levels), receiving elite coaching and development under India's premier cricketing setup.

Now playing under the leadership of CricX star Mandeep Singh at Tripura, Sharath brings a wealth of experience, calm authority, and cricketing intelligence to his current side. Whether setting fields, guiding bowlers, or mentoring younger players, he thrives in leadership environments and plays a pivotal role in team dynamics.

Overview

Sharath Srinivas is a dependable, experienced, and tactically astute cricketer – a natural leader who continues to make significant contributions to Indian domestic cricket. His versatility, work ethic, and leadership acumen make him an invaluable asset in any squad.
