Shay Williams (18), an exciting prospect bowling all-rounder from North Wales.

At the club level, Shay sharpens his skills with Colwyn Bay Cricket Club, a prominent team competing in the Liverpool and District Cricket Competition. Despite facing tough competition for a First XI spot—due to the presence of an Overseas Professional and a former County Professional as the side’s spinners—Shay has showcased his resilience and potential, consistently performing at the senior level. Over five years, he has taken 120+ wickets across both the 1st and 2nd XI, with standout figures of 6/12.

Off the field, Shay is dedicated to improving his craft. He is currently enrolled in a specialised cricket course at Myerscough College, based at Old Trafford Cricket Ground, the home of Lancashire County Cricket Club. With access to state-of-the-art facilities and elite coaching, Shay has been fine-tuning his game and is poised to make 2025 his breakthrough year, aiming to secure a regular spot in the Colwyn Bay First XI.

Shay is not only a skillful bowler but also a reliable contributor with the bat. His ability to dig in and add valuable runs makes him a well-rounded player and a vital team asset.

Now looking to further his development, Shay is keen to experience life and cricket down under in the upcoming season. He is eager to integrate fully into club life, both on and off the field, and embrace everything the southern hemisphere has to offer.

An exciting and ambitious young talent, Williams will undoubtedly be a valuable addition to any club seeking a highly skilled, hardworking, and determined spinner who brings enthusiasm and potential to the team.
