Fernando made his List A and first-class debuts for Sri Lanka Army Sports Club in 2022, followed by his T20 debut in 2023. Since then, he has gone from strength to strength, amassing 1,864 first-class runs at 31.59 and 909 List A runs at 34.96 (as of May 2026), including two first-class hundreds (166 and 121).

Now an established presence in the Sri Lankan domestic circuit, Fernando is looking to take his game overseas and is seeking a UK club opportunity for the 2027 season. A classy top-order batter with the versatility to keep or bowl, he's an exciting addition for any club.
