Shehan Fernando is a rising star in Sri Lankan cricket, currently representing Sri Lanka Army Sports Club and Moors Sports Club across formats. A genuine all-round talent—batting, keeping, and bowling off-spin—Fernando is widely regarded as a player with national potential.

He earned selection for the Sri Lankan Emerging Players tour to Japan in 2023, where he impressed with the bat. Earlier, he made headlines in the 2021/22 Emerging Three-Day Tournament, scoring 274 runs at 30.44, including a century.

Fernando made his List A and first-class debuts for Army in 2022, followed by his T20 debut in 2023. Since then, he has gone from strength to strength, amassing 1,060 first-class runs at 35.33 and 909 List A runs at 34.96 (as of August 2025), including two first-class hundreds (166 and 121).

Now an established presence in the Sri Lankan domestic circuit, Fernando is looking to take his game overseas and is seeking a UK club opportunity for the 2026 season. A classy top-order batter with the versatility to keep or bowl, he's an exciting addition for any club.
