Shehan Madushanka is an exciting seam bowling prospect for Sri Lankan cricket. A genuine quick who doubles as an explosive batter in the lower to middle-order, Madushanka has already featured in a few Sri Lankan international matches and remains in the mix for future selection.

Such was his promise; the all-rounder was picked to tour Zimbabwe with the Sri Lankan Emerging Players in August 2016 – making his first-class debut against the Zimbabwe Development XI. He has since represented the Sri Lankan Board, Development and 'A' sides before playing his solitary ODI match for Sri Lanka against Bangladesh, taking figures of 3-26, including a hat-trick with the wickets of Mashrafe Mortaza, Rubel Hossain, and Mahmudullah. He followed up with two T20 matches for his country in February but hasn't featured since.

Nevertheless, up until recently, the strapping quick continued to ply his trade for the star-studded Badureliya side in Sri Lankan domestic cricket. However, in May 2020, he was suspended from all forms of cricket with immediate effect for alleged drug possession, which was subsequently overturned.

Madushanka hasn't played domestic cricket since March 2020 and is now eager to make up for lost time. He aims to get back on the scene this summer before travelling to the UK to play club cricket in 2022. He represents a high-quality recruit for any club next summer.
