Shermon Lewis is a talented fast bowler who has made a strong impact on the West Indian domestic circuit since his first-class debut in March 2017.

After a modest start with the Windward Islands, Lewis broke through during the 2017/18 WICB Professional Cricket League season, claiming 30 wickets at an average of 21.66 to finish among the top seamers. That standout campaign included his maiden five-wicket haul (5-64) against Trinidad & Tobago, earning him a call-up to the Windies A side for matches against India A and Surrey in July 2018.

His impressive performance in the opening match against India A, where he took eight wickets, propelled him into the senior Test squad. He made his Test debut against India in 2018, picking up two wickets including Virat Kohli, and followed up with another appearance against Bangladesh the following month.

Though those remain his only Tests to date, Lewis also featured in a solitary ODI against the Netherlands in June 2022. Since then, he has continued to perform consistently in domestic cricket and for the Windies A team. In the 2022/23 season, he took 11 first-class wickets at 18.45 and added 7 wickets at 22.42 in the List A competition.

In late 2023, he toured South Africa with the Windies A side, playing a key role by removing top-order batters like Neil Brand, David Bedingham (twice), and Khaya Zondo across the two-match series.

With 116 first-class wickets at 27.24, Lewis has proven to be a consistent red-ball performer. In his first UK season with St Lawrence & Highland Court CC, he continued to impress, taking 27 wickets at just 15.56.

Now approaching 30, Lewis remains eager to return to the West Indies setup while also pursuing global playing opportunities. He is currently based in the UK, with accommodation in London (UB5 6AZ), and is open to offers from clubs across the country for the 2026 season.
