Shohidul Islam, a hard-working and highly experienced seamer in Bangladesh's domestic circuit.

The frontline quick made his professional debut in 2014 and has since featured in more than 150 domestic matches. He has accumulated 120+ First-Class wickets at an impressive average of 26.67. An outstanding return given the notoriously spin-friendly conditions in Bangladesh, and a testament to his skill, perseverance and consistency with the ball.

Shohidul's performances earned him national recognition, culminating in his T20 International debut for Bangladesh in 2021 against Pakistan, where he claimed the prized wicket of Mohammad Rizwan.

A genuine bowling all-rounder, he also offers valuable contributions with the bat, boasting a First-Class century and five half-centuries — proving his ability to change a game with both disciplines.

Now seeking to broaden his horizons with a maiden UK season, Shohidul will no doubt be a standout option for any club looking to secure a high-quality fast-bowling all-rounder with international experience.
