Shrikant Wagh is a high-class left-arm seam bowling all-rounder into his twelfth season playing Indian domestic cricket.

He boasts a tremendous record across the three formats and has been rewarded with higher honours throughout his career to include Central Zone (2010/11-12/13) and India A (2013/14) representation.

The Vidarbha star was also an IPL regular, playing for the likes of Rajasthan Royals (2019/10) and Pune Warriors (2011), is on the verge of the 2,500 run and 300 wicket double in domestic cricket. However, in recent years, he's played predominantly white ball, rather than Ranji Trophy cricket for his beloved State.

The left-arm quick has also excelled during three stints abroad – 1 for Darwen (Northern Premier League) in 2016 between two seasons with Stokesley (North Yorkshire and South Durham Premier League) in 2015 and 2018. He was particularly dominant for the latter taking 113 wickets at 14.27 and scoring 1,178 runs at 33.66. His notable highlight came against Middlesbrough when he took all 10 wickets (10-39) in June 2018.

Wagh had decided to pursue a fantastic Player/Coach opportunity in Denmark for the 2020 season. He was set to play for Danish powerhouse, Skanderborg, before COVID-19 struck. Given he missed this opportunity, Wagh is eager to secure another club gig for the 2022 season.
