Shubham Arora is a high-quality Indian professional cricketer currently representing Himachal Pradesh in the Ranji Trophy, one of the strongest domestic competitions in world cricket.

A top-order left-hand batter, Shubham is known for his elegant yet authoritative style at the crease. He has made an impressive start to his first-class career, averaging 34.80, with a highest score of 118 against Uttarakhand – an innings that played a key role in an emphatic innings and 97-run victory for his side.

In List A cricket, his numbers are even more compelling. Shubham averages 41.21, with a best of 136 against Tamil Nadu*, scored against an attack that included Indian international Washington Sundar – a clear indicator of his quality at a higher level.

Beyond his batting, Shubham offers exceptional versatility. He is capable of contributing with the ball as a right-arm seamer, right-arm off-spinner, and even left-arm orthodox when conditions demand. He is also a professional-level wicketkeeper, making him a genuinely multi-skilled cricketer – a rare and valuable asset in modern cricket.

Shubham has also enjoyed success in UK club cricket. During his debut season with Buxted Park CC in the Sussex League, he averaged 49.58, registering a highest score of 142* and consistently influencing matches throughout the summer. While in the UK, he also completed his ECB Core Coach qualification.

Now targeting a second UK stint, Shubham Arora represents a standout option for clubs seeking a top-order gun who can also contribute with the ball or behind the stumps. He would be a high-impact signing for any side heading into the summer season.
