Shujjah Zaheer is a talented left-handed batter from Abbottabad who has progressed steadily through Pakistan’s domestic cricket system, earning recognition through consistent performances at every level.

He began his cricketing journey in 2017 with the Abbottabad Under-13 regional team, where he quickly established himself as a leading batter. His strong performances at junior level led to selection for the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Under-16 squad in 2020. Continuing his upward trajectory, Shujjah represented Khyber Pakhtunkhwa at Under-19 level in both 2021 and 2022, further underlining his potential.

In 2023, he returned to represent the Abbottabad Under-19 regional side and finished among the leading run-scorers at national level. These performances earned him selection for the Pakistan Under-19 camp, marking an important milestone in his development. He later moved into Grade-II departmental cricket with MAQ, where he continued to impress against senior opposition.

Shujjah made his First-Class debut in the Quaid-e-Azam Trophy 2024 and announced himself at the highest domestic level with an impressive half-century on debut. He followed this up by continuing his First-Class career in the Quaid-e-Azam Trophy 2025, further establishing his reputation as a promising and technically sound left-handed batter.

Now seeking his first season in the UK, Zaheer would be a strong choice for any club seeking a top order run scorer who has an excellent attitude and is very keen to make his mark as an overseas professional.
