Sinan Khadir is a proven all-rounder who broke into first-class cricket in 2018/19 following a string of dominant club season's in the Karnataka Premier League for both Mangalore United and Bilapur Bulls.

He was signed by Mizoram as "professional" and subsequently starred, topping their Ranji Trophy wicket-charts taking 22 wickets at 35.13 including figures of 5-97 against the star-studded Puducherry side.

The leg-spinner is also an accomplished middle-order batter, however, he failed to live up to his run-scoring feats at club level, only hitting 133 runs in his 7 first-class matches. That said, he did average 42.50 with a highest score of 73* in his 5 Vijay Hazare Trophy (List A) games leading into the 2018/19 Ranji Trophy campaign.

Khadir, unfortunately, didn't feature for Mizoram during the 2019/20 season but remains a strong cricketer who is seeking a domestic return following COVID. A player that comes highly recommended by Ranji run machine Taruwar Kohli, who suggests he will excel in league cricket (as he has for various clubs, most recently Dosti in the Netherlands). His performances in both the Karnataka Premier League and Indian domestic competitions suggest he has all the tools to impress.

Khadir is seeking his first overseas stint in 2022 and is a player we highly recommend.
