Sinethemba Qeshile is an exceptional prospect whose domestic exploits fast-tracked him to National selection in March 2019.

An explosive batter who keeps wicket, Qeshile broke into first-class cricket in 2017/18 (131 runs at 32.75), before his barnstorming 2018/19 summer (FC: 735 runs at 52.50; List A: 282 runs at 40.28) resulting in South Africa T20 selection, and CSA domestic “newcomer of the season” award.

It wasn’t only his purple patch with the bat that caught selectors’ attention, but his leadership ability whilst skippering the Warriors Franchise.

A natural born leader, Qeshile is seen as a potential long-term prospect for South African cricket. However, he’ll need to bide his time with Quinton de Kock’s dominance for the Proteas.

Nevertheless, Qeshile is a hungry, and highly thought of cricketer, who will continue to ply his trade in domestic cricket – this summer for Eastern Province following the restructuring prior to this season.

An exciting batter/keeper, who is now eager to showcase his talent abroad in 2022. The in-form South African will be an outstanding acquisition for any club side next summer.
