Snehith Reddy is one of the most promising young cricket talents emerging from New Zealand.

Born in India, Snehith progressed through the Northern Districts cricket team pathway system and was rewarded with the region's 16th domestic contract ahead of the 2024/25 season – a remarkable achievement at such a young age. He joined a squad featuring international experience from players such as Neil Wagner and Jeet Raval, and representing a proud legacy that includes Kane Williamson and Trent Boult.

Reddy's performances at youth level have been exceptional. He earned selection for both the 2024 and 2026 ICC Under-19 World Cups, producing a standout innings of 147 off 125 balls against Nepal* in 2024, showcasing his composure and match-winning ability on the international stage.

He has since made his First-Class debut for Northern Districts against Canterbury and has gone on to feature in five First-Class matches, where he currently boasts an extraordinary average of 123 with a strike rate of 89.78, underlining his immense potential and impact at the professional level.

Now eager to expand his experience, Snehith is targeting an opportunity in UK club cricket for the 2026 season, ideally based around the London area.

A player of international pedigree with elite-level experience and significant upside, Snehith would be a standout signing and a major acquisition for any club still recruiting at this stage.
