Sofor Ali is an emerging first-class fast bowler from Bangladesh who has quickly established himself as one of the most promising seamers in the domestic circuit.

He made his first-class debut for Sylhet Division in 2023 and currently represents Khulna Division. Earlier in his development, he attended the Bangladesh Under-19 National Camp in 2017, highlighting his recognition at youth level.

Ali made an immediate impact in professional cricket. In just his second first-class match, he produced a standout performance against Rangpur Division, claiming five wickets in the first innings. Since then, he has continued to build an impressive record.

In only seven first-class matches, he has taken 30 wickets at an outstanding average of 19.50, including three five-wicket hauls. Notably, he claimed another five-wicket haul in his most recent first-class fixture against Rangpur Division, underlining his consistency and match-winning ability.

A disciplined seamer with the ability to generate movement and maintain pressure, Sofor Ali is now seeking opportunities to showcase his skills abroad. His bowling style and control make him particularly well-suited to UK conditions, where he would represent a strong asset for any club seeking a reliable and impactful pace option.
