Sravan Konidena (21) is an impressive all-rounder (seam) from West London.

The Englishman is a genuine all-rounder who plays for Oxfordshire County Cricket Club in the NCCA. Sravan is a fluent right handed batter who can bat anywhere in the top/middle order and is a front line right arm seamer.

At club level he plays for Horspath Cricket Club in the strong Home Counties Cricket League, and since the start of the 2025 season he has scored a touch under 1000 runs at 40 with the bat, and taken 33 wickets at 20 with the ball. These strong numbers at club level meant that he was picked for the Oxfordshire at the start of the NCCA season.

The Englishman has impressed in the NCCA Trophy already with 9 wickets at 16, but has struggled with opportunities with the bat to do. He is also a former Assistant Coach at Sajid Mahmood Cricket Academy and a graduate in Sports Coaching & Physical Education from Oxford Brookes University. Committed to continuous improvement, teamwork, and performing under pressure.

Always looking for opportunities to compete at a higher level and contribute both on and off the field.
