Sumit Kumar is a highly skilled and versatile cricketer, excelling as a batter, wicketkeeper, and occasional off-spinner. Rising through Jharkhand's youth ranks, his early promise was clear with standout innings like an unbeaten 203 in U-19 cricket. He made his T20 debut in the 2015–16 Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy and List A debut in the 2017–18 Vijay Hazare Trophy, consistently delivering solid performances across formats.

A key player in Jharkhand's Ranji Trophy campaigns, Sumit was the leading run-scorer in the 2016–17 C.K. Nayudu Trophy, highlighted by a commanding 178-run innings. Early mentorship from MS Dhoni greatly influenced his approach, instilling professionalism, strong work ethic, and fitness discipline, which Sumit further supports through his qualification as a strength and conditioning coach.

Praised by coaches like Raj Kumar for his all-round capabilities, Sumit's stylish batting and reliable wicketkeeping make him a compelling choice for overseas leagues. His adaptability, commitment, and technical skills mark him as a standout candidate for 2026 opportunities—offering both experience and potential to any team fortunate enough to secure him.
