Supriyo Chakraborty is a highly talented all-rounder representing the star-studded Jharkhand State team in Indian domestic cricket. Originally from Kolkata, he plays alongside national and IPL names such as Ishan Kishan, Saurabh Tiwari, Shahbaz Nadeem, and Varun Aaron, as well as CricX regulars Nazim Siddiqui and Virat Singh.

Supriyo made his T20 debut in 2019, before earning first-class and List A call-ups in 2023. Since then, he has become a valuable asset across all formats—a dependable middle-order batter capable of both grafting and accelerating, and a skillful seamer who can open the bowling or operate first change with control and movement.

As he looks to cement his place in the Jharkhand setup and chase IPL honours, Supriyo is also keen to embark on his maiden UK club stint in 2026. A versatile performer with a strong domestic pedigree, he's a player poised to make a major impact overseas.
