Syeda Aroob Shah is a talented all-rounder currently involved with the Pakistan Women's team.

A right-arm leg spinner and right-handed batter, Shah stands out as a complete bowling all-rounder with the ability to influence matches in every department. Sharp, agile, and highly competitive, she combines control with wicket-taking ability, while her fielding adds an extra edge to any side she represents.

Shah's journey began early, representing Karachi at just 12 and quickly progressing through the ranks. She made an immediate impact in domestic cricket, notably taking 15 wickets in five matches for PCB Challengers, which earned her selection for the Pakistan Emerging and Pakistan A teams. A natural leader, she captained Pakistan at the ICC Women's U19 T20 World Cup 2023 and led Sindh U19 to a domestic title, where she also claimed Player of the Tournament honours.

On the international stage, Shah has represented Pakistan in major global events, including the ICC Women's T20 World Cups (2020, 2022), Asian Games 2022, and Asia Cup 2024. Her ability to perform under pressure was evident in her 2024 World Cup return, delivering a standout economical spell against Australia.

Her domestic record underlines her quality. In List A cricket, she has taken 74 wickets at an impressive average of 20.67, including a six-wicket haul and multiple four- and five-wicket performances. In T20s, she has claimed 56 wickets at an average of 20.75, maintaining strong control with a consistent economy rate. With the bat, she adds valuable depth, contributing over 500 List A runs and scoring at a strike rate above 110 in T20 cricket.

A proven match-winner, she has earned multiple Player of the Match awards and was named Emerging Cricketer of the Year in 2019. Her ability to deliver in key moments, combined with her leadership experience and team-first mindset, makes her a highly valuable asset.

In addition to her playing career, she is a PCB Level 1 certified coach, reflecting her professionalism and deep understanding of the game. With international experience, strong domestic dominance, and genuine all-round impact, she is an exciting, reliable option for any team looking to strengthen its squad.
