Tabby Rimmer (21), is a talented all-rounder (seam) from Surrey, England.

A dedicated all-rounder who has been immersed in cricket since the age of six. With over a decade of experience at Blackheath Cricket Club (Surrey, UK), she has also represented Surrey County Cricket Club during the 2014/15 season and currently plays for the University of Exeter Ladies Cricket Club 2nd XI, continuing her long-standing involvement at Blackheath. A skilled bowler and fielder, Tabby regularly bats at 5/6 for her university side.

Beyond playing, Tabby is an experienced and passionate coach. Since 2020, she has coached at Blackheath Cricket Club and Matchfit Academy, as well as taking on the role of Women's Development Coach for the University of Exeter. She is set to complete her ECB Core Coach qualification in November 2024, as part of the Devon County Cricket coaching programme, and has already been offered a role assisting with the Devon County girls' coaching programme at St Luke's Campus, Exeter.

Looking ahead, Tabby is eager to continue developing her playing and coaching skills throughout the 2024/25 season with the University of Exeter before pursuing a season abroad in Australia, New Zealand, or South Africa in winter 2025.
