Tait Roberts-Hodgson (21), a young and ever-improving wicketkeeper-batter from Lancashire, England.

Tait plies his trade for Kirkham and Wesham Cricket Club in the newly structured Northern Pyramid – Palace Shield Premier Division, where he has developed into a pivotal figure for the First XI. Known for his sharp glove work behind the stumps and calm presence with the bat, his leadership and performances have seen him appointed First Team Captain for the 2025 season.

Originally making his mark as a dynamic opening batter, Tait has transitioned seamlessly into the number three role this season—offering both stability and attacking intent. With a focus on rotating strike, punishing bad balls, and keeping the scoreboard moving, he has already approached the 200-run mark (as of early June) and continues to be a consistent contributor to his side’s competitiveness.

Behind the stumps, Roberts-Hodgson is a composed and technically sound wicketkeeper, praised for his glovework and reading of the game. His leadership qualities, maturity beyond his years, and growing cricketing intelligence have shaped both his personal development and the Club’s culture.

A product of Myerscough Cricket College, Tait holds a cricketing BTEC degree specialising in coaching and health. He has been heavily involved in junior development at Kirkham and Wesham, mentoring young cricketers as they begin their own cricket journeys and helping transition them into competitive environments.

Now ready to test himself in overseas conditions, Tait is seeking a Club for the 2025/26 season in Australia where he can continue to grow on and off the field—bringing with him energy, leadership, and a genuine passion for Club cricket.

A fantastic addition for any Club looking to bring in a dedicated wicketkeeper-batter with leadership experience and a strong commitment to junior coaching and community involvement.
