Tamsin Holmes is a highly competitive and driven fast-bowling all-rounder from Suffolk, United Kingdom.

Currently representing Suffolk County Cricket Club First XI, Tamsin has progressed through the county pathway system from junior age groups into senior county cricket. A former full sports scholar at Framlingham College, she has developed within high-performance environments and brings leadership, resilience, and professionalism to her game.

Across 138 career matches, Tamsin has scored 1,267 runs, with a highest score of 67* and four half-centuries. Her standout recent campaign came in 2024, where she accumulated 265 runs at an average of 33.13, contributing over 21% of her team's total runs – highlighting her ability to play crucial innings under pressure. Batting in the middle order, she is adaptable and capable of consolidating, absorbing pressure, or accelerating when required.

With the ball, Tamsin has delivered over 323 overs, claiming 66 wickets at an average of 26.79, with a career economy rate of 5.46. Her best figures of 3/1 demonstrate her ability to produce match-defining spells, while her standout 2022 season saw her take 24 wickets at 17.75, maintaining an economy rate under 5. She thrives on responsibility with the new ball, bowling disciplined and attacking lines against top-order batters.

Off the field, Tamsin is an ECB Level Two qualified coach with nearly eight years of coaching experience across grassroots, school, and county-pathway cricket. This dual perspective enhances her cricketing intelligence and professionalism, and she is eager to contribute within a club's coaching structure to support player development.

Ambitious and highly motivated, Tamsin targeted a season in Australia at the end of the current UK season, and she will be joining up with West Torrens Cricket Club in the South Australia Premier Grade from late September.

A driven and well-rounded cricketer, Tamsin Holmes is a standout signing for West Torrens and she will certainly strengthen their squad as a high-quality all-rounder for the upcoming season.
