Tanbir Hayder is a versatile batting all-rounder from Rangpur, Bangladesh, known for his aggressive middle-order batting and quality leg-spin bowling. He burst onto the first-class scene in 2010 and quickly caught attention, earning a place in the BCB XI for a practice match against England just a month later.

By the 2012-13 season, Tanbir had established himself as a key player for Rangpur Division, highlighted by his maiden first-class century and a remarkable 10-wicket match haul. The following season, he showcased his all-round talent by scoring 443 runs, including two centuries, while also taking 12 wickets. Though his focus shifted more towards batting in later years, his leg-spin remained a valuable asset—particularly in Bangladesh, where quality leg-spinners are rare—drawing praise from then-head coach Chandika Hathurusingha.

A career highlight came in 2016 when Tanbir dismissed four top-order England batsmen, including Joe Root, in a four-day game, earning him a spot on standby for Bangladesh’s Test series against England. Despite a hand injury limiting his 2016-17 BPL involvement, he made his ODI debut on Bangladesh’s New Zealand tour later that year.

Tanbir has also gained valuable overseas experience with JG Meakins Cricket Club in England’s North Staffs and South Cheshire Cricket League. While his on-field stats there were modest, his leadership and mentorship of younger players were widely praised, showcasing his professionalism and dedication.

With his proven all-round skills and rich experience, Tanbir Hayder is a dependable and impactful addition for any club this summer.
