Since his professional debut in 2022, he has gained experience across several teams, accumulating 196 runs at 12.25 in 11 first-class matches, 512 runs at 28.44 in 19 List A games, and 114 runs at 8.76 in 13 T20s.

While still finding his footing at the senior level, Tharindu was a standout performer in youth cricket. He scored over 1,000 runs in the 2023 School Under-19 Division 1 Tournament, was named Best Batsman in the Mercantile B Division that same year, and represented Sri Lanka's Under-19 squad. He also finished as the fourth-highest run-scorer in the 2024 Under-23 Tournament, captained his school's Under-19 team, earned Man of the Match honors in his school's prestigious Big Match in 2022, and represented Sri Lanka Under-15 in 2018.

Now seeking his first UK club stint, Tharindu offers promising potential and is a player worth strong consideration.
