Tom Brown, an experienced front line off spinner from Yorkshire, England.

Tom is a highly skilled and experienced off-spinner who has been a standout performer in Premier League cricket for the past eight seasons. A proven wicket-taker, he has played a pivotal role for Clifton Alliance Cricket Club in the Yorkshire Premier League – North Competition, where he has amassed an impressive 250 wickets while also contributing over 700 runs in the lower order.

Brown's most successful period has come in the past three seasons (2022-2024), where he has taken 40+ wickets each year, helping Clifton Alliance secure their first-ever Yorkshire Premier League North title.

His talent has also been showcased on Australian soil, with previous stints at the prestigious Valley District Cricket Club in the Queensland Premier Cricket competition and Middle Park Cricket Club in the Cricket Southern Bayside Competition (Victoria). Across these two seasons, he has continued to impress, taking over 65 wickets.

Beyond his on-field performances, Brown is a qualified ECB Level Two coach with a strong passion for coaching and player development. He is eager to contribute not only as a key player but also as a valuable asset in any club's coaching setup.

Now preparing for a return to Australia for the 2025/26 season, Brown is undoubtedly a fantastic addition for any club seeking a high-quality front-line spinner with proven success in both England and Australia.
